Membership with BBBAC

Members of Badimia Bandi Barna Aboriginal Corporation (BBBAC) have rights and responsibilities as Members, in accordance with the Corporations (Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander) Act 2006 (CATSI Act).

Some of these rights and responsibilities include:

- The right to attend, speak and vote at Members meetings of the Corporation
- To be elected or appointed as a Director of the Corporation
- The right to inspect registers
- To comply with the BBBAC Rule Book
- To notify the Corporation of any change in address details within 28 days
- To comply with the BBBAC Code of Conduct
- To treat other Members with respect and dignity
- To not behave in a way that significantly interferes with the operation of the Corporation and Corporation meetings.

BBBAC Members may be sent member newsletters, email updates and Annual General Meeting notices to their recorded email and postal address details. It is expected that Members will update their contact information with the Corporation so that correspondence and updates can be received.

Completing & Submitting a Membership Form

To become a Member of Badimia Bandi Barna Aboriginal Corporation (BBBAC), applicants need to apply in writing, using the BBBAC Membership Application Form (enclosed in this Membership Kit.)

Before you submit your application form, please consider the following:

- Do you meet the Membership eligibility criteria as outlined in the BBBAC Rulebook, which is publicly available on the Office of the Registrar of Indigenous Corporations (ORIC)?
- Have you provided as much detail as you can (including your family details and apical ancestor)?
- Have you completed every section on the form and signed it?
